The Chirang district administration is gearing up for online registration of candidates for the upcoming army recruitment rally at Tamulpur in Baksa district from October 15.

To facilitate maximum online registration of eligible candidates especially from rural areas, the authority is arranging connectivity facilities at newly constructed DDMA Control Room within Chirang Deputy Commissioner's court premises at Kajalgaon and all Arunadoy Community Service Centres (CSC) with engaging officers and data entry operators including necessary equipment.

In this connection, a team comprising DDMA project officer Kusumbar Choudhury, NIC district informatic officer Surajit Phukan, AMTRON e-District Project Manager Manajjyoti Kalita and Medhassu e-Solution Pvt. Ltd. District Project Manager Diganta Baishnab will oversee and facilitate smooth hardware and software operations for online registration upto September 15.
