Assam governor JB Patnaik had to cut short his speech due to protest by the opposition in the opening day of Assam Assembly budget session on Tuesday. The pandemonium began soon after the governor Patnaik lauded Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi for restoration peace in the state. Opposition AGP, BJP leaders stood up with festoons and disrupted the governor's speech. They demanded the dismissal of Gogoi government where seven ministers are allegedly involved in the multi crore scam in NC Hills. Amid an unruly scene, Governor stopped his speech.
