There is report of a simmering tension in North Lakhimpur district as two Pakistani flags were seen flying in two interior areas on Wednesday. Confirming this, police officials told reporters that the name of Pakistan was clearly written in English in both the flags

Both the Pakistani flags were spotted in Malagaon near Dikornig chapori in Lakhimpur district and the local residents said they have not seen any body hoisting the flags.

On receipt of the complaint, a police team led by the district superintendent of police Mrinal Deka rushed to the spot and seized the two flags. Investigation is in progress.

The incident is said to be an attempt to incite communal clash in the areas inhabited by both Hindus and Muslims.
