The Assam government employees have every reasons to celebrate. The good news came from Dr Hlmanta Blswa Sarma who said that the government will implement the pay panel recommendation from April in 2017.

Addressing a press conference in Guwahati on Monday, the finance minister said that the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) government employees will get DA amount more than their central government counterparts .

According to minister, the pay commission has recommended Rs15000 as (/taxonomy/term/2291) the minimum of a state (/taxonomy/term/2332) government employee. He said that the government has hiked the family pension and that if the pensioner dies at 67, then the family members will get the entire amount and not half.
