A fruitful peace process is set to come up in the discussion between Assam Chief Minister Taun Gogoi and Union home minister P Chidambaram in Delhi on Tuesday. Chidambaram is set to discuss the law and order situation in the hills district before going to prepare the roadmap for restoration of peace and also the adherence of ceasefire ground rules by the DHD and DHD(J) rebel outfits.

Notably, the Chief Minister recently visited Haflong a few days back to study the law and order in the hills district.
