

Peace rally pulls huge crowd at Sadiya

Comments 0

editor 10 July 2008 21125 views

After Kakopathar, people are thronging in thousands at a peace rally in Sadiya in Tinsikia district on Thursday being organised to boost the peace process.

Organised by the Niryatn Birodhi Oikya Mancha, the peace deal is believed to have received a boost with the support of the ULFA's 28th battalion cadres who have recently announced unilateral ceasefire with the Government. The meeting on Tuesday is being attended by top cadres now in unilateral ceasefire Mrinal Hazarika, Moon Bora, Jun Bhuyan et al.

It may recalled that defying ULFA diktat people in large number attended a recent public peace rally at Kakopathar where these ULFA cadres vowed to go with the people for peace and normalcy. Notably, a few days after the ceasefire, ULFA central leadership asked them to refrain from organising public meeting. This was followed by their expulsion from the outfit charging the trio of directly working with the state in the name of peace deal.

These expelled ULFA cadres have been building public opinion to ensure a fruitful talk between ULFA and the Centre to submit these to the central leadership. They have been talking to several parties, organisations and individuals to make their peace mission a success.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Assam down town University Launches Film Appreciation Program to Expand Cinematic Horizons

Assam Publishing Company Unveils Second Edition of Anatole France's "Thais" in Assamese, Reviving Literary Heritage

MSME residential training held at NEHU

World Mental Health Day 2020 observed

National Wushu player faces financial hardships
