UDALGURI: Along with other parts of the state, the final draft of NRC was published here at Udalguri in a very peaceful atmosphere. Out of total 8,76,030 applications received by the NRC authority, 7,48,803 names figured in the complete draft of this historic document of Citizenship in Udalguri district and for some reasons or non availability of supporting documents, a total of 1,27,227 names didn't find place in the full version of the draft of NRC. But, an order issued immediately after the draft publication of the NRC, Dilip kr Das deputy commissioner of Udalguri district said that applicants may approach the concerned LRCR at the NRC Seva Kendras(NSK) from August 7 to September 28 next to know about the reasons for non inclusion of their names in the complete draft of NRC. Any person having any claim or objection or application for correction may apply as per forms available in the NSK or download from the NRC website <http://nrcassam.nic.in> and submit the same before the concerned LRCR during the period from August 30 to September 28 next subject to certain given conditions, the order added.
