Three days after Anil Majundar was shot dead, city police on Thursday has released the sketch of the gunman urging to the people to help them identify the culprit. According to information, the sketch was prepared by the Kolkata based experts with the statement of the driver of the veteran journalist as the entire incident took place in his full view on Tuesday night in Rajgarh. The gunman is suspected to be aged in between 30 to 35 of 5 feet height.

On the other hand, police investigation is in progress to nab the culprit. Police officials say, they are probing it in three separate angles.

Meanwhile, the AJYCP has observed black day on Thursday in protest against the killing of the journalist and executive editor of Aji.
