Congress screening panel met on Tuesday in New Delhi a day before the AICC poll panel meet.

Chaired by Union home minister Sushilkumar Shinde, the panel set up to deal with Assam affairs completed screening of poll candidates for most of the Lok Sabha seats.

The screening panel is believed to have referred the list of the candidates to the AICC poll panel which is set to approve it on Wednesday.

AICC top sources told Assam Times that the list would be announced by the next week.
