

Poultry farm gutted

Comments 0

Ranjanjyoti Mahanta 21 May 2017 6669 views

At least 2,200 chickens were burnt to death when a major fire broke out at a poultry farm at Gaspara of Raha in Nagaon district. Local people rushed out of their houses and initiated the work to extinguish the flames but could not save any of the birds.

KrishnaNath, a resident of Gaspara, who owns the poultry farm saw his entire poultry farm going up in flames on saturday night. Although the owner including some locals succeeded in dousing the fire within half an hour but went in vain as all the birds were dead by then. The exact cause of the fire is yet to be ascertained whether it spreads from any earthen lamp or electric short circuit or an enmity reason.

Ranjanjyoti Mahanta

BY RANJANJYOTI MAHANTA

Prime accused of Arunchal Businessman murder case in cop's net

MLA opens more classrooms in Batadrava

Nagaon Vovinam Association formed

Hit and run claims one on NH 37 at Phulaguri

Body recovered in Kampur

ON THIS DAY

Assam down town University Launches Film Appreciation Program to Expand Cinematic Horizons

Assam Publishing Company Unveils Second Edition of Anatole France's "Thais" in Assamese, Reviving Literary Heritage

MSME residential training held at NEHU

World Mental Health Day 2020 observed

National Wushu player faces financial hardships

RELATED

Tribal Organisations Protest in Kokrajhar, Demand Protection of Land Rights in BTR

Dangerous Pothole on Haripara Road Puts Commuters at Risk

WWF report finds 73% decline in monitored wildlife populations over 52 years

Rongmei Community Holds 8th Cultural and Freshers' Meet in Guwahati

GPS Study Maps Elephant Movement Across Assam, Highlights Key Corridors
