Much to a major boost for Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) in rank and file in Assam, Prashant Kishore has agreed to help the ruling party in the assembly polls March next year.

The brain behind the grand alliance in Bihar, who held a round of informal talks with Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/2150) recently, left New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868) for Guwahati on Thursday afternoon.

Sources told Assam Times in New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868) that the poll Chanakya will hunker down with Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/2150) and Rahul Gandhi (/taxonomy/term/1710) on Friday to finalise the pre poll strategy when the Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) vice president will on a two days visit to the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) on Friday.

"Gogoi recently talked to Prashant at the instance of Rahulji who agreed, in principle, to help Gogoi retain the power in Dispur," said a senior AICC leader (/taxonomy/term/1820).

Notably, former Chief Minister and AGP leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) Prafulla Kumar Mahanta met Kishore in the capital on Tuesday evening and discuss the strategy an anti-Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) and anti-BJP wave in Assam. Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar helped Mahanta met the poll strategist at the Bihar Bhawan in the evening.
