Assam Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal has urged President (/taxonomy/term/2432) Ram Nath Kovind to set up a Presidential retreat in the north eastern region. Sonowal proposed it when he made the newly elected president (/taxonomy/term/2432) at the Rashtrapati Bhawan in New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868) on Saturday.

He said the region of eight states would be happy to have a Presidential retreat in lines with the Retreat Building at Mashobra in Shimla and the Rashtrapati Nilayam in Hyderabad.

According to an official statement, “A Presidential Retreat in the North-east (/taxonomy/term/2485), besides the existing ones in the North and South will symbolise the unity of the country apart from signifying the unity of our diverse cultures and people of the country.”
