Finally, the Centre has removed JP Rajkhowa (/taxonomy/term/2396) as (/taxonomy/term/2291) Arunachal (/taxonomy/term/2194) Pradesh. The move got seal of approval from President (/taxonomy/term/2432) Pranab Mukherjee on Monday evening following Union home minister Raj Nath Singh confirmed the NDA Government's displeasure with the former Assam Chief Secretary.

The Centre sent feelers twice to Rajkhowa (/taxonomy/term/2396) to wash his hands off on health ground. But Rajkhowa (/taxonomy/term/2396) refused to do so even after the Supreme Court snubbed him for his inefficient handling of the Nabam (/taxonomy/term/2429) Tuki Government issue.

Now Rajkhowa (/taxonomy/term/2396) has confirmed the development saying that he has never been hankering after any post.

Assam Times broke the inside story a couple of weeks back when the he was kept under pressure to quit.
