The Asom Jatiyatabadi Yuba Chhatra Parishad (AJYCP (/taxonomy/term/1764)) hit the streets with a 5-hour statewide demonstration demanding measures to check price (/taxonomy/term/1993) hike by the government.

AJYCP (/taxonomy/term/1764) leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) and activists in large numbers thronged the district headquarters in the morning where they staged the demo. With banners and playcards the AJYCP (/taxonomy/term/1764) activists threaten to intensify agitation unless and until steps are taken to bring down the price (/taxonomy/term/1993) level (/taxonomy/term/2232).

Talking to Assam Times, the organization's president Biraj Talukdar said, "the price (/taxonomy/term/1993) of essential commodities has gone up, up and up making it difficult for the common people to survive. But the new government is least bothered. Till the other day we hoped a lot from the new government. But only to be disappointed."
