The District Road Safety Committee will organize a school educational programme to impart traffic knowledge among school going students of different educational institutes of Kamrup (Metro) district. In this connection, an inaugural programme will be held at Gopal Boro H.S. School, Dispur on May 24, 2013 at 12:30 pm.

It may be noted that the District Road Safety Committee has already undertaken several road safety awareness programmes like conducting Road Safety Week in the beginning of the year, health check-up camps and special drives against offenders of Motor Vehicle Act and Rules.
