Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) vice president Rahul Gandhi (/taxonomy/term/1710) on Thursday personally appeared before a lower court in Guwahati in response to a summon issued to him in connection with a defamation (/taxonomy/term/2151) case.

Accompanied by top AICC leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082), former Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/2150) and APCC president Ripun Bora (/taxonomy/term/1799), Gandhi (/taxonomy/term/1710) arrived at the Kamrup Chief Judicial (/taxonomy/term/1635) Magistrate Court premises where he appeared to defend the defamation (/taxonomy/term/2151) case filed against (/taxonomy/term/1929) him by a RSS activist.

A RSS worker filed the defamation (/taxonomy/term/2151) case against (/taxonomy/term/1929) against (/taxonomy/term/1929) Gandhi (/taxonomy/term/1710) last year where the CJM summoned Gandhi (/taxonomy/term/1710) to appear before the court on Thursday.

The RSS volunteer alleged that Gandhi (/taxonomy/term/1710)'s statement on RSS in New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868) tarnished the organization's image which needed to be judged by the court.
