Movement of all trains came to a grinding halt on Thursday when local residents in large number blocked the rails (/taxonomy/term/2278) in Raha demanding the proposed AIIMS in central part of the state.

Raising slogans demanding an immediate shift in the AIIMS venue, the protesters squatted on the rail tracks at (/taxonomy/term/2164)8 (/taxonomy/term/2164) in the morning forcing several trains to stop (/taxonomy/term/2235) for three hours.

Later the blockade was called off with an warning that it would resume if the demand fails to reach the authorities.
