National Democratic Front of Bodoland (NDFB) Chief Ranjan Daimary alias D R Nabla has been produced before the court of chief judicial magistrate (CJM), Kamrup, Robin Phukan in CJM Court, Kamrup in Guwahati on May 16.

After the hearing, the court handed over Ranjan Daimary to CBI in a 9-day remand following the prayer of CBI seeking Daimary's custody for interrogation in connection with the October 30, 2008 serial blasts case. CBI had already filed a chargesheet against 19 people, including Daimary in the October 30 blasts.

Remarkably, Ranjan Daimary, the most wanted in the 2008 Assam serial bomb blasts case, was handed over to Indian authorities by the Bangladesh Rifles (BDR) at Dawaki International border in Meghalaya. After the arrest, he was produced before the CJM court on May 2, and May 14 in a camp court at Guwahati Central Jail.
