Witch hunting incidents in Assam strikes global attention when the United Nation has invited a crusader from the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) to a workshop (/taxonomy/term/1860) slated for Geneva in September this year.

Birubala Rabha, who has been running the anti witchery show down for the last right years will be making it to Geneva to participate a workshop (/taxonomy/term/1860) where the cancerous superstition will get a prominence.

Many parties and organizations' have called up her for being invited to the UN (/taxonomy/term/1902) workshop (/taxonomy/term/1860) and called it a huge stride to end with hunting cases in Assam.
