

Red alert on I-Day security threat

editor · 22:51, 11 Aug 2012 · 7658 views · 1 min read

Assam Police are fully prepared to counter the ULFA threat in the run up to the Independence Day. Addressing a press conference in Guwahati on Saturday, Director General Police Jayanta Narayan Chaudhury revealed that Ulfa's anti-talk faction plans massive strike in the run-up to the Independence Day celebrations. He said Ulfa wants to make its presence felt carrying out blasts and small killings before August 15. He said that the outfit tries to instill fear and create an atmosphere where they can carry out their extortion attempts. According to the DGP, among the major targets of Ulfa are Tinsukia, Dibrugarh, Sivasagar, Goalpara, Bongaigaon and Jorhat districts.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/red-alert-on-i-day-security-threat-7071> | Published: 11 August 2012 | © 2026 Assam Times