Despite round-the-clock vigil, poachers killed a male rhino inside the Kaziranga National Park on Thursday.

According to information, the poachers killed the rhino at Burachapori inside the Agratoli range of the park and forest guards on hearing gunshots rushed to the area and opened fire injuring one of the gang. The injured poacher and another, however, managed to escape.

Sources say the forest guards seized two SBBL guns, several sharp weapons and camping equipment.
