Uncertainty seems to have gripped the Assam Congress legislators over the third choice candidate for the upcoming Rajya Sabha polls.

Sources told Assam Times that closed door meets in Delhi and Dispur have failed to end the dilemma over the party's third choice candidate.

Education minister Dr Himanta Biswa Sarma is understood to have called on Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi at his Koinadhara residence on Monday morning and discuss the stalemate.

On Sunday night Gogoi meet forest minister Rockybul Hussain and MLA Debabrata Saikia.
