The body of Saheer Ahmed, was recovered on Saturday 6 days after he met watery grave on the river Brahmaputra. The body was spotted at around 9 in the morning at Uzanbazar by the local fishermen who called up police and relatives. Saheer, the Class IX student of the Gurukul Grammer Senior Secondary School in Guwahati was feared drown as he along with 6 other climates were holidaying at Sunsali on the mighty river. Same it happened to Simanta Saurav Gayan whose body was fisjed out on Friday.

The relatives of Saheer and Gayan called it a cold blooded murder but policemen investigating the case are still tightlipped. Five other boys, picked up after the incident were already released.
