Senior advocate of the apex court in the country Upamanyu Hazarika will attend the next 'Guest of the Month' program at Guwahati Press Club (GPC

(/taxonomy/term/86) on (/taxonomy/term/1898)7 (/taxonomy/term/1898) January
(/taxonomy/term/1961)2016 (/taxonomy/term/1961) starting at 3 pm.

The person behind the Supreme Court-appointed one-man Upamanyu Hazarika Commission on illegal migrants from Bangladesh (/taxonomy/term/2420) into Assam is expected to narrate his endeavor to enlighten the people of the country on the threat of unabated influx (/taxonomy/term/1762) from Bangladesh (/taxonomy/term/2420) to India (/taxonomy/term/2367). He expressed dismay in his report that there is an established institutionalised mechanism that enables a Bangladeshi national to freely come into the country, acquire citizenship (/taxonomy/term/2368) and voting rights (/taxonomy/term/1990) here and a large scale racket of fake certificates is involved.

His report elaborated that because of a porous border between India (/taxonomy/term/2367) and Bangladesh (/taxonomy/term/2420) with no verification of any person being enrolled as (/taxonomy/term/2291) a voter, no verification of any person getting rights (/taxonomy/term/1990) over (/taxonomy/term/2166) land and subsequently conferred land rights (/taxonomy/term/1990) with procurement of fake certification being the norm, the local residents of Assam would soon (/taxonomy/term/2206) become minority in their own land, unless pragmatic steps are taken. Member-journalists of the press club are requested to participate in the program.
