

LATEST NEWS

Science College, UN Academy usher in HS

Hantigiri Narzary · 21:24, 30 May 2015 | Updated 13:29, 31 May 2015 · 12342 views · 2 min read

Despite regular bandh (/taxonomy/term/100) and agitation programmes in Kokrajhar, heart town of BTAD administration, the Aronai College scripted cent percent result while the UN (/taxonomy/term/1902) Academy HS school and Science College, Kokrajhar ushered with 96.62% and 90. (/taxonomy/term/1690)2 (/taxonomy/term/1690)% passed in today's declared HS results.

The Kokrajhar district has recorded with 64.92% in Arts, 76.86% in Science and 33.93% in Commerce passed percentage in today's declared results.

The Aronai College, a private managed College in Kokrajhar has scripted cent percent results in the HS results declared today with 3 in first, 11 in second and 5 in third division of which 19 appeared students.

A total of 110 students passed out of 122 appeared in the Science College, Kokrajhar, with 43 in first division, 57 second and 10 third division, besides four got star marks. Henry Narzary and Tamal Das got highest 405 and 404 marks out of 500 respectively.

In UN Academy HS school, in Science stream 96.62% passed with 47 first, 36 second and 03 in third division, of which 86 students passed out of 89 appeared. Manaj Narzary got highest marks recording 86.4% along with letter marks in all five subjects from Academy. In Arts stream, UN Academy HS school come out with 95.79% passed in the HS examination and Sudema Basumatary got 78.8% along with letter marks in three subjects in the academy.

Dr RN Sinha, principal of Science College said that the regular bandh called from various organisation and parties affected the students community in the district of which why educational situation have to face several hardships. He has expressed his displeasure over declared of results status in Kokrajhar said that it was not satisfied for the citizens as results out. He has expressing serious concern over the situation prevails in the district as students are not meeting suitable situation during their educational arena. He said that his college is stepping to gaining to increase results positions in coming years.

Juli Basumatary of Simen Sapori College got highest 95 marks in Bodo (MIL) while in Bodo (advance) Anjali Boro of Salbari College and Damsri Daimary of Residential Junior College, Tangla duo got 91 highest marks in the HS final examination.

Hantigiri Narzary

Reporting from Kokrajhar

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/science-college-un-academy-usheer-in-hs-13779> | Published: 30 May 2015 | © 2026 Assam Times