A science cum Art & craft exhibition was organized at Tangla English Medium HS (TEMHS) on September 16 and 17 recently. Fifty numbers of attractive science models, mostly working models were displayed by the students which could draw appreciation from people. An art and craft exhibition was also arranged by students showing various paintings and hand made designs of bamboo, wood and fibres. Students and teachers of various schools of Tangla and neighbourhood visited the exhibition on both the days. Tapan Bhattacharjya, principal of THEMHS told this correspondent that they had been organising such exhibitions each year to motivate students for creative innovation.
