Timothy Das Hanse's brand new Assamese feature film Jibon Bator Logori will be screened at Xankardey Bhawan, Qutub Institutional Area, New Delhi, at 3 pm on Sunday, 15th Nov.

Hanse will be present at the screening organized by the Assam Association.

Incidentally, JBL was recently released through satellite using UFO Moviez technology simultaneously in 25 theatres in Assam, which is a record for the state's cinema, and its Box Office success has come as a refreshing change for the ailing local film industry, which had not seen a commercial success for a long time.

It is what we can describe as a typical family drama with a social message.
