

Sivasagar Bandh Almost Peaceful

Comments 0

shariefzamanborah 2 February 2009 7185 views

sibsagar_121525960.jpg

Normal life was affected in Sivasagar district bandh on Monday with the Assam Tea Tribes Students Association (ATTSA) calling an 12-hour Sivasagar Bandh from 5 a.m. to 5 p.m. to protest killing of an innocent youth in Tingalibam Tea Estate by the army. The army has ordered a court of inquiry into the matter. During the bandh the roads wore deserted look with public and private vehicles off the roads. Traders kept their shutters down, while all business establishments, educational institutions, financial institutions remained closed and attendances in government offices were thin. The bandh passed off peacefully and there was no report any major untoward incident from anywhere in the district only 6 picketeers were arrested by police in Gelaki during the bandh.

shariefzamanborah

BY SHARIEFZAMANBORAH

ONGC donates Mobile Cancer Detection Van to hospital

Leopard cub and python rescued

Forest guard injured in encounter

Horticulture Development Awareness Camps organised by ONGC

MAJONI scheme launched in Sivasagar

ON THIS DAY

Assam down town University Launches Film Appreciation Program to Expand Cinematic Horizons

Assam Publishing Company Unveils Second Edition of Anatole France's "Thais" in Assamese, Reviving Literary Heritage

MSME residential training held at NEHU

World Mental Health Day 2020 observed

National Wushu player faces financial hardships
