DIBRUGARH: Social (/taxonomy/term/1938) media brews trouble for yet another government officer who has faced suspension only because of a photograph. He is none other than Aroop Patangia, the Dibrugarh central jail superintendent whom the government suspended on Thursday acting on a photograph which went viral in social (/taxonomy/term/1938) media.

According to information, Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) MLA and Opposition leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) Debobrata Saikia and his Mariani counterpart Rupjyoti Kurmi very recently visited KMSS leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) Akhil Gogoi inside the jail. Towards the end thr duo had a photo session with the peasant leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) who was hailed under the National (/taxonomy/term/1874) Security Act.

The photograph was uploaded and then went viral in social media. Now the authority had blamed it all on the jail superintendent for nit disallowing it to happen. He was suspended on Thursday.
