In a very disheartening and tragic incident one Chinmoy Bora dumped his own mother near NH 37 at Nagaon to get hold of the family's wealth. It is said that a person can never repay one's mother's debt through out one's life. Chinmoy Bora has shamed humanity by dumping his own mother like an old and useless piece of furniture near Nh 37 in Nagaon, forgetting that she was the one who had kept him in her womb for nine months and had fed him with her blood. And today when she has grown old and weak and needed him after the death of her husband late Bishnu Prasad Bora who worked as vigilance officer at ONGC Duliajan, Padumi Bora was thrown like a beggar beside the highway. She lay in near unconscious state for not less than a day until a social worker Mr. Anil Sharma, Region chairman of Lions Clubs International called 108 ambulance and admitted her to Nagaon Civil Hospital without knowing the story or the old lady. The entire background of the Padumi Bora came to light when she told the media and press about her plight.
