Assam chief (/taxonomy/term/2020) minister Sarbananda Sonowal has ordered a high level (/taxonomy/term/2232) probe into the Silapothar incident where some protesters demanding an end to the D voter tag turned violence and vandalised a local AASU office.

Talking to reporter in Guwahati on Tuesday, Sonowal said additional chief (/taxonomy/term/2020) secretary VK Pyarilal will probe into it who would submit his findings within a month and that the culprit would get exemplary punishment.

Calling it an unfortunate incident, the chief (/taxonomy/term/2020) minister said that the incident is a threat to the age old bonhomie and brotherhood among the various tribes and groups in both the Brahmaputra (/taxonomy/term/2226) and Barak (/taxonomy/term/2317) Valley.

Senior minister Himanta Biswa Sarma also said that those responsible would not be able to escape once indicted in the enquiry.
