

LATEST NEWS

Soobodh escaped on Mar 10

AT News · 17:36, 16 Mar 2017 · 10407 views · 1 min read

Dhemaji police have extracted many vital clues suggesting the safe escape of Soobodh Biswas, the main culprit behind the Silapothar clash where some a local AASU office was vandalized last week.

These sensational revelations surfaced when police interrogated a person who confessed to have helped the NBBUSS president escape from Silapothar hours after the clash.

He revealed before the police how he ferried Biswas at a boat on the river on March (/taxonomy/term/2005)10 (/taxonomy/term/2005).

Delhi, Nagpur, West Bengal police are on alert (/taxonomy/term/1634) in view of the incident where the main culprit could be hiding.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/soobodh-escaped-on-mar-10-18676> | Published: 16 March 2017 | © 2026 Assam Times