The Guwahati branch of South Indian Bank has shifted to the first floor of Peace Centre, Opposite to AGP Office on GNB Road, Ambari. The branch was rededicated to the customers by Shri. R.C. Jain, IAS, Managing Director, Assam Power Generation Corporation Limited, in the august presence of His Grace Archbishop John Moolachira, Archdiocese of Guwahati and Shri. Abraham Thariyan, Executive Director of South Indian Bank.

The new ATM Centre was inaugurated by Rev Fr. Mathew Anchukandam, Financial Administrator, Archdiocese of Guwahati. Shri Mahipal Kothari, Managing partner, Bharat Bamboo and Timber Suppliers inaugurated the locker facility.

South Indian Bank has touched new heights of expansion with a network of 777 branches and 888 ATMs across the country. Referring to the current growth rate of the Bank, Mr. Abraham Thariyan opined that the Bank will grow further and reach out to more customers, from small sections of India to wide horizons of the globe.
