Come Thursday. Altogether 15,12,151 voters are prepared to exercise their franchise to decide on the fate of seven candidates in the final phase of the Lok Sabha polls.

The voting will begin from 7 in the morning at 1,891 booths which will end only at 5 in the afternoon. Heavily guarded by the security forces, the polling officials have already reached their assigned booths.

The crucial constituency is locked in a triangular contest among BJP Congress and AIUDEF. Sitting MPP and BJP candidate Rajen Gohain is facing a tough contest with Congress candidate Junjunali Baruah while AIUDEF leader Dr Aditya Langthasa is certainly make a dent the BJP and Congress strongholds.
