A strong earthquake has struck Assam and its neighbouring areas pushing panic button among the people on Tuesday. The massive jolt was felt at 2-32 in the afternoon forcing a section of the people in Guwahati to come out of their homes immediately after the tremor. According to the US Geological Survey Centre, the intensity of the tremor stands at 5.4 in the Richter scale and its epicentre was Myanmar-India border. There is, however, no report of any loss of life and property til now.
