

LATEST NEWS

Sukhoi30 search in Aashrabari

AT News · 08:42, 25 May 2017 · 8364 views · 1 min read

A huge joint team of army and Indian Air Force is believed to have reached Ashrabari along Assam-Arunachal Pradesh to recover the Sukhoi 30 which went missing on Tuesday with two pilots on board.

Local residents in the area claimed to have seen the jet fighter crash landed in the dense forest which forced the rescuers to concentrate on thr area.

Nearly a dozen of choppers have been deployed in the search operation which is expected to intensity in the afternoon. But the rescuers have been finding it a tough time because of thr inclement weather.

Of course, nobody is in the know of the pilot duo who took off at (/taxonomy/term/2005)10 (/taxonomy/term/2005).30 in the morning from Salonibari airport in Tezpur.

As (/taxonomy/term/2291) many as (/taxonomy/term/2291) sixteen army and IAF teams found (/taxonomy/term/1802) it quite difficult in Sonitpur district to intensity the rescue operation in the face of an inclement weather on Wednesday.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

---

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/sukhoi30-search-in-aashrabari-19106> | Published: 25 May 2017 | © 2026 Assam Times