

Summer vacation extended in BTAD

editor · 03:17, 2 Aug 2012 · 9501 views · 1 min read

The Assam government on Wednesday extended the summer vacation for a week in the schools and colleges in troubled torn Kokrajhar, Chirang and Dhubri districts.

According to Education and Health Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma, the summer vacation of educational institutions have been extended by seven more days which could be extended further, if needed.

He said that for students displaced in the violence, free text books and education materials will be provided.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/summer-vacation-extended-in-btad-6988> | Published: 2 August 2012 |
© 2026 Assam Times