Altogether 5 persons have been injured in group clash with a section of local residents in Tinsukia district on Sunday. The clash took place in Shantipur on the NH 37 when a group of persons had an altercation with a group of local residents over a family matter where these persons who came on two vehicles from Roing threatened the local residents showing sharp weapons. Then an irate mob accepted the challenge and attacked them before handing them over to police. The vehicles were damaged in the incidents. Police have already re gistered a case against them.
