GUWAHATI: The Maharashtra police is preparing to bring Bhubneswar after their cunterparts in Assam arrested the police constable in Haflong (</taxonomy/term/105>) in connection with the infamous call data record scam.

Das (</taxonomy/term/1926>), whom the police arrested a couple of days back acting on the allegations by the police in Thane would be brought to Maharashtra for interrogation.

According to police, a police team in Thane probing the CDR racket traced the mobile number owned by Das (/taxonomy/term/1926) who managed to procure the CDR from the cyber (/taxonomy/term/2428) cell where he was attached to. The inputs he illegally procured belonged of the persons arrested in Thane.
