GUWAHATI: Trouble brews for an aged Guwahati based journalist a day after he advocated killing of Naga policemen to deal \(/taxonomy/term/1922\) with the border unrest.

He is none other than Dhirendra Nath Chakravartty, who at a meeting in the city on Friday said that if 50 Naga policemen are shot dead along the Assam-Nagaland \(/taxonomy/term/1597\) border then no Naga would come for aggression for the next 50 years.

Two citizens from Guwahati have lodged a complaint in Jalukbari police station against the octogenerian journalist accusing him of trying to create tension along the Assam-Nagaland \(/taxonomy/term/1597\) interstate border.
