The United Bodo People organization has expressed deep concern over the unwanted politics of mud (/taxonomy/term/2067)-slinging a section of Bodo leaders to gain political mileage over the recent carnage (/taxonomy/term/2011).

In a statement, president and general secretary of United Bodo People organization Mihiniswar Basumatary and Gambaru Muchahary said that the Bodo leaders should understand the real fact that other inimical and hostile different non Bodo organisation and outfits have already taken it as the weakness of the Bodos and their very bent on cornering out the Bodo society as a whole during this critical juncture.

'This abominable politics has rather boomeranged the overall interest of the Bodo society, instead of benefiting none of the Bodo leaders are engaged in each other mud (/taxonomy/term/2067)-slinging politics, it said and urged upon the leaders of different-political and non political Bodo organaisations to refrain from practicing each other mud (/taxonomy/term/2067)-slinging politics for their vested interest.
