

ULFA Army Day: Centre puts Assam on maximum alert

Comments 0

editor 15 March 2012 8957 views

The Centre has sounded alert on Assam a day before ULFA's Army Day on Friday.

A Home Ministry letter on Wednesday has instructed the Assam government to tighten security in the state apprehending strike by the outfit's Paresh Baruah faction. Security forces are in place in all sensitive installations, crowded places, markets, railway stations and tracks to foil any attempt by the extremists to disrupt peace.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Zubeen Garg (1972-2025): the voice that carried Assam's soul to every corner of the world

Veterinary school inaugurated

Three arrested in Kokrajhar

Fire in Gurudwara Complex Shop in Namrup

Shillong Hackathon 2017
