

ULFA cadre found dead inside jail in Meghalaya

Comments 0

editor 5 August 2008 12043 views

A hard core ULFA cadre who was languishing in Tura jail has committed suicide inside police-lock up on Monday afternoon. According to information, the body of the ULFA cadre Dharmen Hajong, was found when guards opened his cell on Monday afternoon. Police hoped the militants would reveal important details about the outfit's activities in the Garo Hills. The cadre belonging to ULFA's 28 Battalion strike force had hailed from Horipur area of Changlang district in Arunachal Pradesh.

He was apprehended in Tura running a shop inside Tura Super Market for the last two months. Dharmen Hajong is believed to have a crucial role in planning the outfit's operations inside Arunachal Pradesh

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

New music video - Xur Tumi- to release soon

FIR lodged against Wipro on money laundering, letter sent to Premji

Congress, LF clear poll alliance

Congress opposes Madrassa closure move

Absconding police officer surrenders
