The United Liberation Front of Asom (/taxonomy/term/2581) has strongly opposed the imposition of Sanskrit in the schools and demanded Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159) as (/taxonomy/term/2291) compulsory subject in all schools.

In a statement received on Saturday, the outfit's central publicity secretary Aronodoi Asom (/taxonomy/term/2581) thrashed education minister Himanta Biswa Sarma for the decision saying that the imposition of Sanskrit would kill (/taxonomy/term/2198) the existing spirit of the mother language.
