An unavoidable situation arose at Barpeta regarding the training of the presiding officers and polling officers to maintain no.6 Barpeta Lok sabha constituency According to report said that the polling and presiding officers training was held in 7 centres at Barpeta today. In the other centres the training was held timely, but no trainers had reached at Barpeta JRP girls' high school until 11am, whereas all the election appointed presiding reached there in proper time. At this the appointed presiding officers were enraged and staged dharna in front of DC office with slogans. Though the DC Phanidhar Kalita and ADC P.K.Bhagawati came to console them, they did not care for it and when they were out of control the superintendent of police, Barpeta Debajyoti Mukharjee had to come to control the enraged officers. The demonstrators also complained that they were not even given foods or training fees. Mentionable that when some of the protestor came, at that time some others taking their training.
