

Assam Times

assamtimes.org

LATEST NEWS

Unity pledge on May Day

AT News · 15:37, 1 May 2017 · 7507 views · 1 min read

Assam joined May Day celebration on Monday where the working class pledged to fight \(/taxonomy/term/2073\) against \(/taxonomy/term/1929\) injustice to the workers \(/taxonomy/term/2406\) engaged in the both organized and unorganized sectors.

Led by the trade \(/taxonomy/term/1790\) unions, workers \(/taxonomy/term/2406\) in the factories, business establishments and bank employees held huge rallies in capital city \(/taxonomy/term/1957\) of Guwahati along with the district and sub divisional headquarters.

Working people in the various fields took out a procession in Guwahati reiterating their demands (/taxonomy/term/2467) and asked the government to look into these demands (/taxonomy/term/2467).

The speakers in the rallies, mostly, the Left (/taxonomy/term/1960) leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) strongly criticised the government both in state (/taxonomy/term/2332) and Centre alleging that over (/taxonomy/term/2166) the years they have done precious little for the working class.

They further urged the workers (/taxonomy/term/2406) to remain united to force the government to look into the problems confronting them for years.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/unity-pledge-on-may-day-18939> | Published: 1 May 2017 | © 2026 Assam Times