Veteran Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159) editor-journalist Tilak Hazarika was hospitalized on Monday night at GNRC (/taxonomy/term/87) hospital (Dispur campus) following brain hemorrhage. According to the hospital source, his condition remains critical. The former editor of Asom Bani and Sadin was not feeling well for some time due to age related ailments.

Chief minister Sarbananda Sonowal wishes his early recovery and announced that his entire medical expenditure will be borne by his government at Dispur.
