A pall of glooms descends in the entire Bajali area in Barpeta district when renowned physician Dr Umesh Chandra Das (/taxonomy/term/1926) breathed his last on Wednesday.

Various parties, organizations and individuals arrived in his residence early in the morning and paid their last homage to the lifeless Das (/taxonomy/term/1926) immediately they came to know the sad news.

Talking to Assam Times, a cross section of the people conveyed their deep sympathy to the bereaved family members and prayed to the God for eternal peace of the departed soul.

Das (/taxonomy/term/1926), the first MBBS degree holder in the huge area passed away at his own residence at the age of 92. Born in 1923 at Jalighata, Das (/taxonomy/term/1926) is survived by his three sons and four daughters.
