The All Bodo Students Union (ABSU) demanded tripartite talk at political level (/taxonomy/term/2232) before parliament session to solve long standing demand of separate Bodoland state (/taxonomy/term/2332) with immediate effect.

The students union observed 30th Bodoland Demand Day on Thursday at different places across the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) to mark the mass revolution day which was started on 2nd March in 1987 seeking separate Bodoland state (/taxonomy/term/2332).

The 2nd March from 1987 has been a remarkable and historic for the Bodos. On this day the then president of the ABSU Upendra Nath Brahma had launched (/taxonomy/term/1637) the democratic mass movement demanding separate state (/taxonomy/term/2332) Bodoland from Sonkosh to Sadiya the northern bank of Brahmaputra (/taxonomy/term/2226). However, the demand is not yet resolved and the mass democratic movement is going on continuously. It has been 30 years the Bodoland demand is ignored by the Government of India (/taxonomy/term/2367). Such a long pending issue which was earlier launched (/taxonomy/term/1637) in 1967 demanding statehood by name Udayachal and totally it is now 50 Years has been elapsed,the ABSU said.

The ABSU and its movement groups–NDFB(P), PJACBM jointly submitted memorandum to Prime Minister of India (/taxonomy/term/2367) seeking early solution of Bodoland issue through political dialogue to gain good governance in the region. The demands (/taxonomy/term/2467) included, holding tripartite talk at political level (/taxonomy/term/2232) before Parliament (/taxonomy/term/1963) session, policy (/taxonomy/term/2366) decision on creation of Bodoland state (/taxonomy/term/2332) with immediate effect, ensure political right to the Bodos living outside the proposed Bodoland area and invite all the revolutionary Bodo organizations for joint talk on the Bodoland issue.

The joint movement group (/taxonomy/term/2415) declares the series of movement programme which include indefinite mass hunger strike from March (/taxonomy/term/2005)10 (/taxonomy/term/2005), National (/taxonomy/term/1874) Highway and railway blockade for 24 hours in last week of March, Jail Bharo in April next, non cooperation with the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) government on May and other series of movement programme will continue unless the government resolves the Bodoland issue within a stipulated time frame,the ABSU said.
