Chief minister Tarun Gogoi hoped in Monday that the voters will judge the Congress party by the performance of the government.

Addressing a huge poll rally in Ghoramara in Tezpur on behalf of Bhupen Bora, the chief minister said that the Congress government has no dearth of schemes covering the people of all walks of life.

“Our government has done a lot. Our process of development has already percolated benefit to all section of the people. Nobody can stop our victory,” said the chief minister.

Taking a dig at AGP and BJP, Gogoi said that both the parties have done precious little for the people and that only Congress is the option in the upcoming Lok Sabha polls.
